InventHelp® & INPEX® to Hold 2nd Annual Open
Innovation Conference

PITTSBURGH... InventHelp's INPEX®, America's largest invention trade show, is pleased to once again host the Open Innovation Conference as a part of INPEX® 2012. The 2nd Annual Open Innovation Conferenc

Right now through March 31st, 2012, INPEX® is offering an early bird special to companies who register. Instead of the regular price of $499, attendees can pay a discounted cost of $399. This registration fee includes all seminars and unlimited access onto the INPEX® 2012 trade show floor. To get more information, including seminar times, speakers and hotel reservation information or to register, please visit the Open Innovation Conference section of inpex.com, or contact Jordan Zangaro at 412-288-1300 x4124 or jzangaro@inpex.com.

Once the Open Innovation Conference has concluded on Thursday, June 14th, all registered business attendees will automatically be invited to walk the show floor at INPEX® 2012. New products in more than 40 categories will be on display, and attendees can touch and evaluate new ideas while talking directly to the inventor about the details of the invention. INPEX® is the only show to combine this type of education and networking format for business representatives.

INPEX®, America's largest invention trade show, is a unique trade show that showcases new products and innovations that are available to business and industry to manufacture, license or distribute. INPEX® is a service of InventHelp, America's largest invention submission company, and will be held June 13-15, 2012, at the Monroeville Convention Center outside of Pittsburgh, Pa. For more information about INPEX®, call 1-888-54-INPEX or visit www.inpex.com.
