3. Reasons

Based on the shareholder returns policy outlined in the Mid-term Business Plan 2025-2027 announced on February 13, 2025, our basic policy during the period of 2025 to 2027 is to aim for a total payout ratio of 50% or more, and to strengthen shareholder returns in line with growth in financial performance, by implementing a stable shareholder returns through introduction of a progressive dividend payout starting with ¥90 per share annually, and by implementing flexible share buybacks in line with the business environment and financial and management conditions.

Based on the above policy and the positive financial forecast for the year ending December 31, 2026 announced today, the Company will increase its interim dividend to 56 yen per common stock, up 2 yen from the most recent forecast of 54 yen per common stock. The Company also revised its forecast for its year-end dividend to 56 yen per common stock, up 2 yen from the most recent forecast of 54 yen per common stock. As a result, the annual dividend for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2026 is expected to amount to 112 yen per common stock, combining the 56 yen interim dividend and the 56 yen year-end dividend. The Company will also revise its interim dividend and forecast for the year-end dividend of Class A stock (unlisted) for the year ending December 31, 2026, as with the common stock.

Furthermore, the Board of Directors resolved at a meeting held today for the Company to acquire its treasury stock. For details, please refer to “Announcement Concerning Resolution on Acquisition of Treasury Stock” announced today.
